Dear Howard,

A Real Lame is entering The Watergate revelations. Compared to Turner, Mark looks good.

Publishers are becoming receptive to assassination material because to a younger group the subject is New and Vietnam/Watergate has given it a context. They want - or seem to want - Kennedy, Bobby stuff. They will get it, too.

I don't dig Nancy deeply into Romero. It's a pastiche and dull book. At least Nagel tried better stories. Ha Ha!

As for Neal, a confused, naive person. I remain faithful to S.M. that the Journalistic "was perhaps a CIA front." Probably, she replied, but Neal couldn't take the front from the back. That the CIA would find Neal useful ----- no doubt! Cyril/Norstar/Gatsworth etc. are quite alike. Kwasnak appears to be a new "expert".

There is no shortage of those!
Sincerely,
